

B.ScIT and CS students wins at 1st National Hackathon organised by IEEE

The students of IT and CS department participated in the 1st National Hackathon organised by IEEE Bombay Section at Vidyalkar School of Information Technology. A hackathon is a non-stop product/prototype development competition, over a period of 24 hours where problem statements are posed to students for innovative solutions. Maharashtra College was the only non engineering college To participate with the youngest team members winning the Second prize in the Software Domain and consolation prize in the IoT projects beating teams with Engineering and MCA students.

Three prizes won by Maharashtra College at National Level Hackathon. 2nd Prize- My AR Teacher

( Adil, Shahid and Sahil) from syics

Consolation Prize- Smart Car Parking( Ayesha, Azhar and Junaid) from tyit and MscIT.

Best Mentor. Prof Aadil Kampoo.

Students have recieved trophy, certificates and cash prizes.